

Thursday 16th

Satanás - Odeon Covent Garden - 7pm

Gala Screening and UK premiere in association with The Little Film Company.

Inspired by real events and based on Mario Mendoza's best seller, Satanás is a poignant story that portrays the most human and intimate side of three characters.

The premiere will be followed by a screen talk with Mendoza.

Colombiage launch party - Soho Revue Bar - 10pm to 3pm

Colombiage launch party at the legendary Soho Revue Bar featuring an anglo-colombian DJ set.

Riverside Studios, 11am - 11pm

Saturday 18th

EDUCATION

Children Workshops

11.00 am and 12.00 pm

A series of fun music workshops for children between the ages of 5 and 11

FILM

The Wandering Shadows (15) La Sombra del Caminante

2.30pm

A poetic and poignant story about the struggles of life and the limits of friendship.

Del Palenque de san Basilio (PG)

4.20pm

This documentary, never screened in the UK, is an insightful study of the rarely exposed Afro-Colombian culture.

Bluff (18)

6.30pm

This fantastic comedy/thriller narrates the story of Nicolas, who has it all until the day he finds his girlfriend about to cheat on him with his boss.

Espectro (18) Al Final del Espectro

8.35pm

A plot full of impact, that submerges its characters in a deep and disturbing experience.

LITERATURE

In Conversation with Juan Carlos Botero

2.00pm

Acclaimed novelist and award-winning short story writer Juan Carlos Botero will be discussing his inspirations and influences.

In Conversation with Evelio Rosero

3.30pm

One of Colombia's most exciting international authors, Evelio Rosero, will be launching the British publication of The Armies.

Las Onces with Mario Mendoza

5.00pm

Mario Mendoza, one of the leading lights of Colombia's post-García Márquez generation will discuss his latest novel, The Invisible Ones as well as Satanás, the film adaptation of his famous novel.

MUSIC

Lucia Pulido's Ensemble & Bomba Esteréo

8.00pm

A double bill of Lucia Pulido, one of the richest voices on the international Latin American musical scene and Bomba Esteréo, whose music is a fusion of Colombian folk and electronica.

Booking information

Riverside Studios: +44(0)208 237 1111

Odeon Covent Garden: 0871 22 44 007 135

Soho Revue Bar: Email info@colombiage.com

Sunday 19th

EDUCATION

Children Workshops

11.00 am and 12.00 pm

A series of fun music workshops for children between the ages of 5 and 11

FILM

Bluff (18)

6.30pm

This fantastic comedy/thriller narrates the story of Nicolas, who has it all until the day he finds his girlfriend about to cheat on him with his boss.

Paraiso (15)

4.45pm

Guerrero's assured and conceptually rich abstract documentary film is a poetic evocation of a country and its historical memory.

Negro Pacifico (15)

6.00pm

A contemporary tale of urban black communities in Colombia that are eager to express their identity in unique ways.

LITERATURE

Panel Discussion with Mario Mendoza, Evelio Rosero & Juan Carlos Botero

2.00pm

What can literature do when confronted by an onslaught of violence? This problem will be put to some of the most important authors of fiction working now in Colombia.

Panel Discussion - Colombia Today

3.30pm

Leading British and Colombian journalists will be in discussion about their experiences reporting how Colombia is represented in the media today.

In Conversation with Gerald Martin

5.00pm

British biographer Gerald Martin will be talking about all things Gabbo, as he presents the forthcoming publication of A Life, his authorised biography of Gabriel García Márquez.

Ticket prices

Gala screening & Launch Party	£14
Launch party only (in advance / at the door)	£5 / £7
Children Workshops	£4.50 / child
Screenings	£8.50 each
Literature Talks	£6.50 each
Concert both Lucia Pulido + Bomba Esteréo	£15
Combi-Ticket	£25
1 Talk + 1 Film + Concert (Lucia Pulido & Bomba Esteréo)
Weekend Film & Literature Pass (access to all films and literature talks)	£30

Colombiage 08

Celebrating Contemporary Colombian Arts

Colombiage returns to London to celebrate the best of contemporary Colombian culture with a programme of outstanding music, film, literature and much more.

Partner

Libertad y Orden

REPUBLICA DE COLOMBIA
Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores

Embajada de Colombia

Sponsors

Contributors

