

PRESS RELEASE – COLOMBIAGE 2008 PROGRAMME ANNOUNCED – August 22nd, 2008

Following the incredible success of the first ever annual celebration of contemporary Colombian arts and culture, Colombiage is returning to London from the 16th to the 18th of October, 2008 across two venues presenting Colombia's newest and most exciting talent in Music, Literature and Film.

The line-up for this year includes the gala screening and UK premiere at the Odeon Covent Garden of the critically acclaimed Satanás (d: Andy Baiz) on Thursday, October 16th, based on the novel by the award-winning author Mario Mendoza. The premiere will be followed by a screen talk with Mendoza and a launch party at the legendary Soho Revue Bar, featuring an anglo-colombian DJ set.

On Saturday and Sunday, October 18th and 19th, Colombiage will move to the famed Riverside Studios and feature a series of concerts, film screenings, talks, Q&A's and workshops. Both nights will feature a concert by Lucia Pulido, one of the richest voices on the international Latin American scene, and Bomba Estéreo, the new sound of Colombian folk and electronica direct from Bogotá. Colombian writers include Mendoza, the award winning short story writer Juan Carlos Botero and the acclaimed novelist Evelio Rosero. Colombiage will also feature British biographer Gerald Martin, talking about his forthcoming publication of the authorised Gabriel Garcia Marquez biography, A Life.

Our impressive film line up this year includes La Sombra del Caminante (d: Ciro Guerra), Bluff (d: Felipe Matinez), Al Final del Espectro (d: Felipe Orozco) as well as the UK premiere of Del Palenque de San Basilio a documentary by leading director Erwin Goggle. We are also delighted to introduce our Family Programme, 'A Journey through Colombia', for 5 to 11 year olds.

Director Landa Acevedo-Scott says: 'We've responded to the resounding success of Colombiage '07 by offering London audiences an additional two days of Colombian culture this year. From exploring the life of a Colombian giant like Gabriel Garcia Marquez to discovering the fresh new sound of Bomba Estéreo, Colombiage remains committed to celebrating Colombia through the richness and diversity of our culture.'

For press information visit our website www.colombiage.com or call Landa Acevedo-Scott on 07951 565 218. For ticket sales visit www.riversidestudios.co.uk.

Colombiage is not-for-profit festival offering a unique cultural experience of Contemporary Colombia. Colombiage aims to educate, inspire and entertain London's diverse audiences through a programme of events showcasing the very best of Colombia.